"For Immediate Release"

PRRA Presents

GOMIE with Special Guest WHITEMUD HOLD'EM

The Portage Regional Recreation Authority Inc. presents live in their first concert, GOMIE, Dave Wasyliw's independent band, on June 17th at the PCU Centre with Special Guest Whitemud Hold'Em.

Most of us know Dave Wasyliw, as a third of the award winning songwriting trio Doc Walker and his co-efforts have amassed over 20 top ten singles released on Doc Walker's Curve (2001), Everyone Aboard (2003), Doc Walker (2006), 2009 Juno Country Recording of the Year, Beautiful Life (2008) and Go (2009). His vocal harmonies are a staple of the Doc Walker sound, but Dave is ready for his solo voice to be heard, GOMIE. "You Are Here" (produced by Dave and Murray Pulver) is the debut album from Gomie and the concert at the PCU Centre on June 17th will be their first live concert.

Whitemud Hold'Em made their debut earlier this year with a sold out show at the Glesby Centre and refer to themselves as "Combining Sheryl Crow and John Mayer, and then making them better looking." Both local bands are sure to entertain!

Tickets for this one of a kind local event are only $25 plus GST and go on sale Friday April 29th at the PCU Centre Box Office and online at www.pcucentre.ca.
