PORTAGE REGIONAL RECREATION AUTHORITY INC.

March 9, 2011

“For Immediate Release”

PRRA Announces Public Access Online

On Tuesday, March 1st the Portage Regional Recreation Authority launched their public access site. Now you can register for PRRA Programs, purchase memberships, view facility & ice availability and request facility & ice reservations all online.

The new PRRA Online Access site can be easily accessed from the PCU Centre homepage at www.pcucentre.ca as well as step by step instructions on setting up an account and how to log in for first time users.

Once users receive their online account all of the following programs, services & information can be accessed through the PRRA Online site:

- View your Account Activity
  - Review your daily schedule of activities, credits or transactions on your account, grades from previous activities and even print tax receipts.
- Access PRRA Services
  - Register for swimming lessons, day camps or fitness classes, purchase PRRA memberships, or view facility or ice availability and request reservations.
- Modify Your Personal Information
  - Change your PRRA account information including contact information and passwords as well as add or delete family members under your account.
- Make Payments on your Account
  - Make payments on activities or reservations, access details on payments or change payment information.

PRRA Online Access will allow you to plan activities and schedules from the comfort of your home and eliminate having to wait in line for registration. Find answers to your questions about memberships or when yours will expire. Planning an event? Look at the options available at PCU Centre and find out if the space you require is available. Or if your team is looking for extra practice time check online to find available ice slots and request the reservation.

The PRRA staff is also prepared to offer support if you are having trouble creating or logging into an account or if you have any questions regarding the online site, please contact them at 857-7772.

Being active, living your best life and taking advantage of all the Programs and Services the Portage Regional Recreation Authority has to offer has never been so easy.
